In re DAWN MARIE HUNTER on Discipline

The court orders that Dawn Marie Hunter, State Bar Number 177153, is suspended from the practice of law in California for two years, execution of that period of suspension is stayed, and she is placed on probation for two years subject to the following conditions:

1. Dawn Marie Hunter is suspended from the practice of law for the first 90 days of probation;
2. Dawn Marie Hunter must comply with the other conditions of probation recommended by the Hearing Department of the State Bar Court in its Order Approving Stipulation filed on November 18, 2013; and
3. At the expiration of the period of probation, if Dawn Marie Hunter has complied with all conditions of probation, the two-year period of stayed suspension will be satisfied and that suspension will be terminated.

Dawn Marie Hunter must also take and pass the Multistate Professional Responsibility Examination within one year after the effective date of this order and provide satisfactory proof of such passage to the State Bar's Office of Probation in Los Angeles within the same period. Failure to do so may result in suspension. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 9.10(b).)

Dawn Marie Hunter must also comply with California Rules of Court, rule 9.20, and perform the acts specified in subdivisions (a) and (c) of that rule within 30 and 40 calendar days, respectively, after the effective date of this order. Failure to do so may result in disbarment or suspension.

Costs are awarded to the State Bar in accordance with Business and Professions Code section 6086.10 and are enforceable both as provided in Business and Professions Code section 6140.7 and as a money judgment. One-third of the costs must be paid with her membership fees for each of the years 2015, 2016, and 2017. If Dawn Marie Hunter fails to pay any installment as described above, or as may be modified by the State Bar Court, the remaining balance is due and payable immediately.

I, Frank A. McGuire, Clerk of the Supreme Court of the State of California, do hereby certify that the preceding is a true copy of an order of this Court as shown by the records of my office.
