- (5)  Other Conditions:

11. On February 28, 2014, Sacramento Superior Court rejected the Request for Entry of Default on the basis that it contained an incorrect case number.

12. On March 14, 2014, respondent sent a letter entitled "Status of Litigation" on his firm's letterhead, and signed on behalf of his firm.

13. On September 10, 2014, Crawford filed a request for dismissal with prejudice in the civil matter.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

14. By drafting the Request for Entry of Default, providing legal advice to Crawford, and sending the March 14, 2014 letter entitled "Status of Litigation," on respondent's firm letterhead and signed on behalf of respondent's firm, respondent held himself out as entitled to practice law, and actually practiced law, when he was not an active member of the State Bar in willful violation of Business and Professions Code, sections 6125 and 6126, thereby failing to support the laws of the State of California, in willful violation of Business and Professions Code, section 6068(a).

15. By drafting the Request for Entry of Default, providing legal advice to Crawford, and sending the March 14, 2014 letter entitled "Status of Litigation," on respondent's firm letterhead and signed on behalf of respondent's firm, respondent held himself out as entitled to practice law, and actually practiced law, when respondent knew that he was not an active member of the State Bar, and thereby committed an act involving moral turpitude, dishonesty or corruption, in willful violation of Business and Professions Code, section 6106.

16. By failing to inform Crawford that, on December 2, 2013, respondent was going to be suspended from the practice of law due to his failure to pass the MPRE, and by failing to timely inform Crawford that, as of December 2, 2013, respondent was suspended from the practice of law due to his failure to pass the MPRE, respondent failed to keep his client reasonably informed of significant developments in a matter in which respondent had agreed to provide legal services, in willful violation of Business and Professions Code, section 6068(m).

FACTS SUPPORTING AGGRAVATING CIRCUMSTANCES.

Prior Record of Discipline (Std. 1.5(a)): Respondent has a single prior record of discipline. In case no. 11-O-19332, respondent received a 90-day actual suspension for violating Business and Professions Code section 6106 by submitting forged documents and making false statements to a probate court. Respondent's prior record of discipline constitutes an aggravating circumstance pursuant to Standard 1.5(a).

Multiple Acts of Misconduct (Std. 1.5(b)): Respondent committed three acts of misconduct. Respondent's multiple acts of misconduct constitute an aggravating circumstance pursuant to Standard 1.5(b).

FACTS SUPPORTING MITIGATING CIRCUMSTANCES.

Prefiling Stipulation: Respondent is entitled to mitigation for entering into a full stipulation with the Office of Chief Trial Counsel prior to the filing of a Notice of Disciplinary Charges, thereby saving State Bar Court time and resources. (Silva-Vidor v. State Bar (1989) 49 Cal.3d 1071, 1079 [where mitigative credit was given for entering into a stipulation as to facts and culpability].)

AUTHORITIES SUPPORTING DISCIPLINE.

The Standards for Attorney Sanctions for Professional Misconduct “set forth a means for determining the appropriate disciplinary sanction in a particular case and to ensure consistency across cases dealing with similar misconduct and surrounding circumstances.” (Rules Proc. of State Bar, tit. IV, Stds. for Atty. Sanctions for Prof. Misconduct, Std. 1.1. All further references to Standards are to this source.) The Standards help fulfill the primary purposes of discipline, which include: protection of the public, the courts and the legal profession; maintenance of the highest professional standards; and preservation of public confidence in the legal profession. (See Std. 1.1; In re Morse (1995) 11 Cal.4th 184, 205.)

Although not binding, the Standards are entitled to “great weight” and should be followed “whenever possible” in determining level of discipline. (In re Silverton (2005) 36 Cal.4th 81, 92, quoting In re Brown (1995) 12 Cal.4th 205, 220 and In re Young (1989) 49 Cal.3d 257, 267, fn. 11.) Adherence to the Standards in the great majority of cases serves the valuable purpose of eliminating disparity and assuring consistency, that is, the imposition of similar attorney discipline for instances of similar attorney misconduct. (In re Naney (1990) 51 Cal.3d 186, 190.) If a recommendation is at the high end or low end of a Standard, an explanation must be given as to how the recommendation was reached. (Std. 1.1.) “Any disciplinary recommendation that deviates from the Standards must include clear reasons for the departure.” (Std. 1.1; Blair v. State Bar (1989) 49 Cal.3d 762, 776, fn. 5.)

In determining whether to impose a sanction greater or less than that specified in a given Standard, in addition to the factors set forth in the specific Standard, consideration is to be given to the primary purposes of discipline; the balancing of all aggravating and mitigating circumstances; the type of misconduct at issue; whether the client, public, legal system or profession was harmed; and the member’s willingness and ability to conform to ethical responsibilities in the future. (Stds. 1.7(b) and (c).)

To determine the appropriate level of discipline, additional Standards should be considered. Respondent committed three acts of professional misconduct. Standard 1.7(a) requires that where a respondent “commits two or more acts of misconduct and the Standards specify different sanctions for each act, the most severe sanction must be imposed.” The most severe sanction applicable to respondent’s misconduct is found in Standard 2.7, which applies to respondent’s act of moral turpitude. Standard 2.7 provides that “[d]isbarment or actual suspension is appropriate for an act of moral turpitude, dishonesty, fraud, corruption or concealment of a material fact. The degree of sanction depends on the magnitude of the misconduct and the extent to which the misconduct harmed or misled the victim and related to the member’s practice of law.”

Here, a six-month actual suspension, which is in the middle of the available range of discipline, is appropriate because respondent held himself out as entitled to practice law, and in fact practiced law, over a four-month period. Respondent’s misconduct is also aggravated by a prior record of discipline and multiple acts of misconduct. A higher level of discipline is not warranted for several reasons. First, respondent’s misconduct is limited to a single client matter. Second, respondent did not appear on behalf of Crawford, or file a document in his name, in the civil matter. Finally, respondent is entitled to mitigation for entering into a prefiling stipulation.

A six-month actual suspension is also consistent with Standard 1.8(a), which applies because respondent has a prior record of discipline. Standard 1.8(a) provides that “[i]f a member has a single prior record of discipline, the sanction must be greater than the previously imposed sanction unless the prior discipline was so remote in time and the previous misconduct was not serious enough that imposing greater discipline would be manifestly unjust.” Here, respondent’s prior discipline of a 90-day actual suspension was effective in 2012, and is therefore, not remote in time. Further, respondent’s prior discipline was serious as respondent committed moral turpitude by filing forged documents and making false statements to a court. Therefore, a six-month actual suspension, which is greater than the level of discipline imposed in respondent’s prior disciplinary matter, is consistent with Standard 1.8(a).

“Practicing law while suspended has resulted in a range of discipline from suspension to disbarment, depending on the circumstances of the misconduct, including the nature of any companion charges and the existence and gravity of prior disciplinary proceedings.” (In the Matter of Taylor (Review Dept. 1991) 1 Cal. State Bar Ct. Rptr. 563, 580.) For example, in In the Matter of Wells (Review Dept. 2006), 4 Cal. State Bar Ct. Rptr. 896, the Review Department recommended that the attorney be actually suspended for six months for engaging in the unauthorized practice of law in another jurisdiction, charging an illegal fee, failing to refund unearned fees, failing to maintain funds in trust, and committing acts of moral turpitude, in two client matters. (Id. at 899.) The Review Department found that the attorney’s misconduct was aggravated by a prior private reproof, multiple acts of misconduct, significant harm, and indifference. (Id. at 912.) The court found the attorney’s misconduct was mitigated by extreme emotional distress, good character, and entering into a stipulation of material facts. (Id. at 913.)

Here, respondent’s misconduct warrants the same level of discipline as the Review Department recommended for attorney Wells. While respondent’s misconduct only involved a single client matter, and involves slightly less egregious companion charges, respondent’s prior disciplinary matter is more egregious, and respondent’s misconduct is only mitigated by a prefiling stipulation.

Balancing all of the appropriate factors, a 6-month actual suspension is consistent with Standards 1.8(a) and 2.7 and applicable caselaw, and appropriate taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of this case.

COSTS OF DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS.

Respondent acknowledges that the Office of the Chief Trial Counsel has informed Respondent that as of October 30, 2014, the prosecution costs in this matter are $2,992. Respondent further acknowledges that should this stipulation be rejected or should relief from the stipulation be granted, the costs in this matter may increase due to the cost of further proceedings.

EXCLUSION FROM MCLE CREDIT

Pursuant to rule 3201, Respondent may not receive MCLE credit for completion of State Bar Ethics School. (Rules Proc. of State Bar, rule 3201.)
