- (3) Within ten (10) days of any change, Respondent must report to the Membership Records Office of the State Bar and to the Office of Probation of the State Bar of California ("Office of Probation"), all changes of information, including current office address and telephone number, or other address for State Bar purposes, as prescribed by section 6002.1 of the Business and Professions Code.

Upon the direction of the Office of Probation, Respondent must meet with the probation deputy either in-person or by telephone. During the period of probation, Respondent must promptly meet with the probation deputy as directed and upon request.
- (5) Respondent must submit written quarterly reports to the Office of Probation on each January 10, April 10, July 10, and October 10 of the period of probation. Under penalty of perjury, Respondent must state whether Respondent has complied with the State Bar Act, the Rules of Professional Conduct, and all conditions of probation during the preceding calendar quarter. Respondent must also state whether there are any proceedings pending against him or her in the State Bar Court and if so, the case number and current status of that proceeding. If the first report would cover less than 30 days, that report must be submitted on the next quarter date, and cover the extended period.

In addition to all quarterly reports, a final report, containing the same information, is due no earlier than twenty (20) days before the last day of the period of probation and no later than the last day of probation.

- (6) Respondent must be assigned a probation monitor. (Do not write above this line.)

further hearing until passage. But see rule 9.10(b), California Rules of Court, and rule 5.162(A) & (E), Rules of Procedure.

No MPRE recommended. Reason: On April 24, 2013, in Respondent's prior disciplinary matter, State Bar case number 12-O-13199 (S208857), the California Supreme Court ordered Respondent to take and pass the MPRE within one year of the effective date of the disciplinary order. Because Respondent failed to do so, on June 5, 2014, the State Bar Court Review Department suspended Respondent pending proof of passage of the MPRE.

- (2) Rule 9.20, California Rules of Court: Respondent must comply with the requirements of rule 9.20, California Rules of Court, and perform the acts specified in subdivisions (a) and (c) of that rule within 30 and 40 calendar days, respectively, after the effective date of the Supreme Court's Order in this matter.
- (3) Conditional Rule 9.20, California Rules of Court: If Respondent remains actually suspended for 90 days or more, he/she must comply with the requirements of rule 9.20, California Rules of Court, and perform the acts specified in subdivisions (a) and (c) of that rule within 120 and 130 calendar days, respectively, after the effective date of the Supreme Court's Order in this matter.
- (4) Credit for Interim Suspension [conviction referral cases only]: Respondent will be credited for the period of his/her interim suspension toward the stipulated period of actual suspension. Date of commencement of interim suspension:
- (5) Other Conditions:

the disciplinary order, including a thirty (30) day actual suspension in case number 12-O-13199, which became effective May 24, 2013. The violations of those probation conditions are the basis for this matter. In the prior matter, Respondent violated Business and Professions Code section 6106 by making a false statement regarding his MCLE compliance on June 7, 2011. In mitigation, Respondent had no prior record of discipline in 37 years of practice prior to the misconduct. Respondent also entered into a pre-filing stipulation. No factors in aggravation were included in the stipulation.

Indifference (Std. 1.5(g)): Despite receiving the May 30, 2014 letter from the Office of Probation, Respondent did not register to complete the June 13, 2014 session of Ethics School. Respondent's inaction and non-compliance with the Ethics School requirement after notice from the Office of Probation demonstrate Respondent's indifference toward rectification of or atonement for the consequences of his misconduct.

MITIGATING CIRCUMSTANCES.

Prefiling Stipulation: Respondent has voluntarily entered into this stipulation to resolve the matter before the filing of disciplinary charges and should receive mitigative credit for his admission of culpability and consent to the imposition of discipline, thus saving limited State Bar resources and acknowledging and accepting responsibility for his misconduct. (Silva-Vidor v. State Bar (1989) 49 Cal.3d 1071, 1079 [where mitigative credit was given for entering into a stipulation as to facts and culpability].)

AUTHORITIES SUPPORTING DISCIPLINE.

The Standards for Attorney Sanctions for Professional Misconduct "set forth a means for determining the appropriate disciplinary sanction in a particular case and to ensure consistency across cases dealing with similar misconduct and surrounding circumstances." (Rules Proc. of State Bar, tit. IV, Stds. for Atty. Sanctions for Prof. Misconduct, std. 1.1. All further references to Standards are to this source.) The Standards help fulfill the primary purposes of discipline, which include: protection of the public, the courts and the legal profession; maintenance of the highest professional standards; and preservation of public confidence in the legal profession. (See std. 1.1; In re Morse (1995) 11 Cal.4th 184, 205.)

Although not binding, the Standards are entitled to "great weight" and should be followed "whenever possible" in determining level of discipline. (In re Silvertown (2005) 36 Cal.4th 81, 92, quoting In re Brown (1995) 12 Cal.4th 205, 220 and In re Young (1989) 49 Cal.3d 257, 267, fn. 11.) Adherence to the Standards in the great majority of cases serves the valuable purpose of eliminating disparity and assuring consistency, that is, the imposition of similar attorney discipline for instances of similar attorney misconduct. (In re Naney (1990) 51 Cal.3d 186, 190.) If a recommendation is at the high end or low end of a Standard, an explanation must be given as to how the recommendation was reached. (Std. 1.1.) "Any disciplinary recommendation that deviates from the Standards must include clear reasons for the departure." (Std. 1.1; Blair v. State Bar (1989) 49 Cal.3d 762, 776, fn. 5.)

In determining whether to impose a sanction greater or less than that specified in a given Standard, in addition to the factors set forth in the specific Standard, consideration is to be given to the primary purposes of discipline; the balancing of all aggravating and mitigating circumstances; the type of misconduct at issue; whether the client, public, legal system or profession was harmed; and the member's willingness and ability to conform to ethical responsibilities in the future. (Stds. 1.7(b) and (c).)

Both Standards 2.10 and 1.8(a) are applicable here. Standard 2.10 provides that actual suspension is appropriate for a failure to comply with the conditions of probation (Business and Professions Code section 6068(k)).

Standard 1.8(a) provides that if an attorney has a record of one prior discipline, the discipline imposed for the current misconduct must be greater than the previous discipline unless the prior discipline was remote in time and the offense was of minimal severity. Respondent's 2013 prior discipline is not remote and his prior offense involved an act of moral turpitude.

Pursuant to Standards 2.10 and 1.8(a), a period of actual suspension greater than thirty (30) days is required in this matter. In aggravation, Respondent has a prior record of discipline and has shown indifference to completing the Ethics School condition. In mitigation, Respondent has accepted responsibility for his professional misconduct by admitting to culpability and consenting to the imposition of discipline by entering into a pre-filing stipulation.

In consideration of the foregoing, a one (1) year stayed suspension with a two (2) year probation with conditions including a ninety (90) day actual suspension and compliance with rule 9.20 of the California Rules of Court will protect the public, the courts, and the legal profession; help maintain high professional standards; and preserve public confidence in the profession.

COSTS OF DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS.

Respondent acknowledges that the Office of the Chief Trial Counsel has informed Respondent that as of August 21, 2014, the prosecution costs in this matter are approximately $2,992. Respondent further acknowledges that should this stipulation be rejected or should relief from the stipulation be granted, the costs in this matter may increase due to the cost of further proceedings.

EXCLUSION FROM MCLE CREDIT

Pursuant to rule 3201, Respondent may not receive MCLE credit for completion of State Bar Ethics School. (Rules Proc. of State Bar, rule 3201.)
