PROPOSED) ANSWER TO DISCIPLINARY CHARGES Count One Case No. 14-O-06419

Business and Professions Code, section 6106
[Moral Turpitude-NSF Transactions]

Respondent admits checks went into overdraft and she was negligent in keeping track of this account in accordance with State Bar Rules, but rather that the overdrafts and disorganized bookkeeping occurred not from Moral Turpitude but as a result of medical reasons, namely her PTSD and severe depression for which she was trying during this time period to find competent medical treatment. (See accompanying

(PROPOSED) ANSWER TO DISCIPLINARY CHARGES

7 Respondent admits she failed to respond as required, but similarly this occurred as a 8 result of medical reasons, namely having severe problems with her eyesight during this 9 time in addition to her PTSD and severe depression for which she was trying during this 10 time period to find competent medical treatment. (See accompanying Declaration of 11 Carla Johansen in Support of Motion to Set Aside Default.) Respondent again requests 12 being placed in the Alternative Discipline Program to address these issues.
