A Member of the State Bar.)	TAKE AND PASS THE MPRE

On May 10, 2016, respondent Allan Robert Frumkin, through his attorney Jerome Fishkin, filed a motion seeking to eliminate the requirement that Respondent take and pass the Multistate Professional Responsibility Examination (MPRE) as a condition of reprobation in case no. 14-O-02323. In the alternative, Respondent requested an extension of time to take and pass the MPRE. Respondent asserts that he has taken the MPRE on three previous occasions, but has failed to obtain a passing score.

On May 11, 2016, the Office of the Chief Trial Counsel of the State Bar of California (State Bar) filed an opposition to Respondent's motion to eliminate the MPRE requirement as a condition of reprobation. The State Bar does not oppose Respondent's motion, in the alternative, for extension of time to take and pass the MPRE.

After thorough consideration, the court issues the following orders:

1. No good cause having been shown, Respondent's motion to eliminate the requirement that he take and pass the MPRE as a condition of reprobation is DENIED; and
2. Respondent's motion, in the alternative, for extension of time to take and pass the MPRE is consistent with protecting the public; the member's successful rehabilitation; and maintaining the integrity of the legal profession. (Rules Proc. of State Bar, rule 5.300(B).) Accordingly, Respondent's motion for extension is GRANTED. Respondent is ORDERED to provide proof of passage of the MPRE to the Office of Probation on or before September 30, 2016.¹

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: May 16, 2016

LUCY ARMENDARIZ
Judge of the State Bar Court

¹ Should Respondent file any additional requests for extension of time to take and pass the MPRE, he would be expected to provide documentary evidence demonstrating his previous efforts to take and pass the examination and the scores he obtained.
