STIPULATION RE FACTS, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW AND DISPOSITION

IN THE MATTER OF:                    RICHARD HENRY WAGNER
CASE NUMBER:                        15-O-11113

FACTS AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW.

Respondent admits that the following facts are true and that he is culpable of the violation of the specified statute.

Case No. 15-O-11113 (State Bar Investigation)

FACTS:

1. As a member of the State Bar, respondent was required to complete 25 hours of minimum continuing legal education (“MCLE”) during the period commencing on February 1, 2011, and ending on January 31, 2014 (the “compliance period”).
2. On February 7, 2014, respondent reported under penalty of perjury to the State Bar that he was in compliance with the MCLE requirements, and, in particular, that he had completed 25 hours of MCLE during the compliance period.
3. In fact, respondent was not able to produce evidence that he had completed any hours of MCLE within the compliance period.
4. At the time he reported to the State Bar that he was in compliance with the MCLE requirements, respondent states that he believed that he had completed the required 25 hours of MCLE, and that he had sufficient records. However, when he affirmed compliance, he failed to check his records and, in reality, he had failed to maintain adequate records of his MCLE compliance.
5. When respondent reported to the State Bar that he was in compliance with the MCLE requirements, respondent was grossly negligent in not knowing that he was not in compliance with the MCLE requirements.
6. Subsequently, respondent took MCLE courses necessary to bring himself into compliance after being contacted by the Office of Member Records and Compliance regarding an MCLE audit. Respondent timely complied with the audit.

CONCLUSION OF LAW:

7. By reporting to the State Bar that he was in compliance with the MCLE requirements when he was grossly negligent in not knowing that he was not in compliance with the MCLE requirements, respondent committed an act involving moral turpitude, dishonesty, or corruption in willful violation of Business and Professions Code section 6106.

MITIGATING CIRCUMSTANCES.

No Prior Discipline: Respondent has been an attorney since 1987 and has no record of discipline. Respondent's almost 27 years in practice with no prior discipline at the time of the misconduct is entitled to significant mitigation. (In the Matter of Riordan (Review Dept. 2007) 5 Cal. State Bar Ct. Rptr. 41, 49; see Friedman v. State Bar (1990) 50 Cal.3d 235, 242.)

Prefiling Stipulation: Respondent has voluntarily entered into this stipulation to resolve the matter before the filing of disciplinary charges and should receive mitigative credit for his admission of culpability and consent to the imposition of discipline, thus saving limited State Bar resources and acknowledging and accepting responsibility for his misconduct. (Silva-Vidor v. State Bar (1989) 49 Cal.3d 1071, 1079 [where mitigative credit was given for entering into a stipulation as to facts and culpability].)

AUTHORITIES SUPPORTING DISCIPLINE.

The Standards for Attorney Sanctions for Professional Misconduct "set forth a means for determining the appropriate disciplinary sanction in a particular case and to ensure consistency across cases dealing with similar misconduct and surrounding circumstances." (Rules Proc. of State Bar, tit. IV, Stds. for Atty. Sanctions for Prof. Misconduct, std. 1.1. All further references to Standards are to this source.) The Standards help fulfill the primary purposes of discipline, which include: protection of the public, the courts and the legal profession; maintenance of the highest professional standards; and preservation of public confidence in the legal profession. (See std. 1.1; In re Morse (1995) 11 Cal.4th 184, 205.)

Although not binding, the Standards are entitled to "great weight" and should be followed "whenever possible" in determining level of discipline. (In re Silverton (2005) 36 Cal.4th 81, 92, quoting In re Brown (1995) 12 Cal.4th 205, 220 and In re Young (1989) 49 Cal.3d 257, 267, fn. 11.) Adherence to the Standards in the great majority of cases serves the valuable purpose of eliminating disparity and assuring consistency, that is, the imposition of similar attorney discipline for instances of similar attorney misconduct. (In re Naney (1990) 51 Cal.3d 186, 190.) If a recommendation is at the high end or low end of a Standard, an explanation must be given as to how the recommendation was reached. (Std. 1.1.) "Any disciplinary recommendation that deviates from the Standards must include clear reasons for the departure." (Std. 1.1; Blair v. State Bar (1989) 49 Cal.3d 762, 776, fn. 5.)

In determining whether to impose a sanction greater or less than that specified in a given Standard, in addition to the factors set forth in the specific Standard, consideration is to be given to the primary purposes of discipline; the balancing of all aggravating and mitigating circumstances; the type of misconduct at issue; whether the client, public, legal system or profession was harmed; and the member's willingness and ability to conform to ethical responsibilities in the future. (Stds. 1.7(b) and (c).)

Standard 2.11 is applicable to respondent's misconduct and provides that "[d]isbarment or actual suspension is the presumed sanction for an act of moral turpitude [or] dishonesty" and that the "degree of sanction depends on the magnitude of the misconduct; the extent to which the misconduct harmed or misled the victim, which may include the adjudicator; the impact on the administration of justice, if any; and the extent to which the misconduct related to the member's practice of law."

Whether made through gross negligence or intentional dishonesty, respondent's false statement regarding his MCLE compliance is serious and constitutes an act of dishonesty directly relating to the practice of law. Pursuant to Standard 2.11, an actual suspension is appropriate in this matter. Although respondent made a false statement regarding his MCLE compliance, respondent's misconduct did not harm or mislead a client and did not harm the administration of justice. Nevertheless, properly complying with continuing education requirements are an important part of the practice of law. Respondent has almost 27 years in practice with no prior record of discipline. Due to the mitigating circumstances present and the lack of aggravating circumstances, a discipline at the lower end of the range suggested by Standard 2.11 is appropriate. Thus, a one (1) year stayed suspension and one (1) year probation with conditions including a thirty (30) day actual suspension will serve to protect the public, the courts and the legal profession; maintain the highest professional standards; and preserve public confidence in the legal profession.

In In the Matter of Yee (Review Dept. 2014) 5 Cal. State Bar Ct. Rptr. 330, Yee affirmed her MCLE compliance when she had not taken any courses during the relevant reporting period. Yee mistakenly recalled that she had completed the courses and did not check or maintain any records to confirm if her recollection was accurate. The Review Department found that Yee's failure to verify records before submitting a statement of compliance amounted to moral turpitude based on gross negligence. The Review Department found no aggravation, but did find compelling mitigation consisting of no prior record of discipline, candor/cooperation, good character, remorse/recognition of wrongdoing, pro bono work and community service, and no harm to the public or the judicial system. Due to the compelling mitigation, the lack of aggravating circumstances, and Yee's genuine recognition of wrongdoing, the Review Department recommended discipline consisting of a public reproof.

Similar to Yee, respondent submitted a false statement regarding his MCLE compliance. Also like Yee, there is a lack of aggravating circumstances and the mitigating circumstance of no prior record of discipline. However, unlike Yee, respondent does not have the compelling mitigating circumstances of good faith, pro bono work, remorse/recognition and community service.

COSTS OF DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS.

Respondent acknowledges that the Office of the Chief Trial Counsel has informed respondent that as of October 5, 2015, the prosecution costs in this matter are approximately $3,066. Respondent further acknowledges that should this stipulation be rejected or should relief from the stipulation be granted, the costs in this matter may increase due to the cost of further proceedings.

EXCLUSION FROM MCLE CREDIT

Pursuant to rule 3201, respondent may not receive MCLE credit for completion of Ethics School or MCLE hours completed in lieu of Ethics School ordered as a condition of discipline. (Rules Proc. of State Bar, rule 3201.)
