8. On November 3, 2014, Respondent spoke with MRC and acknowledged that he still needed to complete his MCLE courses for the compliance period. Respondent indicated that he intended to complete his required credits and would submit his hours along with the necessary fees to be reinstated.

9. On November 10, 2014, MRC sent a letter to Respondent informing him that he had been enrolled as not eligible to practice for his failure to fulfill the MCLE audit requirements, effective November 1, 2014. Respondent received the letter.

10. On December 16, 2014, MRC sent Respondent a final letter advising Respondent that he had been placed on administrative inactive status, and that the matter may be referred to the Office of Chief Trial Counsel ("OCTC") for further investigation. Respondent received the letter.

11. On July 17, 2015, Respondent was restored to active status after submitting proof that he had completed 25 MCLE hours during the Spring of 2015, and paying the reinstatement fee.

12. On September 11, 2015, an OCTC investigator sent Respondent a letter informing him of the investigation of the allegation that he affirmed compliance with the 25 hour MCLE requirement, when, in fact, he had not completed the requirement at the time of the affirmation. The letter requested Respondent to respond in writing by September 25, 2015. Respondent received the letter but did not respond. On the same date, the investigator also sent the same letter to Respondent via email to the email address Respondent used when submitting his MCLE materials to MRC two months earlier. Neither email was returned undeliverable. Respondent did not respond to either email.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

16. By falsely reporting under penalty of perjury to the State Bar that he had complied with the MCLE requirements, when he knew that he had not complied with the MCLE requirements, Respondent committed an act involving moral turpitude, dishonesty, or corruption, in willful violation of Business and Professions Code section 6106.

17. By failing to provide a written response or otherwise cooperate and participate in a disciplinary investigation pending against him, Respondent willfully violated Business and Professions Code section 6068(i).

AGGRAVATING CIRCUMSTANCES.

Multiple Acts of Wrongdoing (Std. 1.5(b)): Respondent committed two acts of misconduct by falsely reporting under penalty of perjury to the State Bar that he had complied with the MCLE requirements and by failing to cooperate in the State Bar's investigation.

ADDITIONAL FACTS RE MITIGATING CIRCUMSTANCES.

No Prior Discipline: Respondent was admitted to practice on April 26, 2004. He has been active from that time until November 1, 2014, totaling 10 years of discipline-free practice at the time of the misconduct. While Respondent's conduct is serious, he is entitled to substantial mitigation for a discipline-free record after a significant number of years of practicing law. (Hawes v. State Bar (1990) 51 Cal.3d 587, 596 [gave significant weight in mitigation to attorney practicing 10 years without discipline]; In the Matter of Riordan (Review Dept. 2007) 5 Cal. State Bar Ct. Rptr. 41 [mitigation credit for many years of discipline free practice given even when conduct is serious].)

Pretrial Stipulation: By entering into this stipulation, Respondent has acknowledged his misconduct and is entitled to mitigation for recognition of wrongdoing and saving the State Bar significant resources and time. (Silva-Vidor v. State Bar (1989) 49 Cal.3d 1071, 1079 [where mitigative credit was given for entering into a stipulation as to facts and culpability]; In the Matter of Spaitth (Review Dept. 1996) 3 Cal. State Bar Ct. Rptr. 511, 521 [where the attorney's stipulation to facts and culpability was held to be a mitigating circumstance].)

AUTHORITIES SUPPORTING DISCIPLINE.

The Standards for Attorney Sanctions for Professional Misconduct "set forth a means for determining the appropriate disciplinary sanction in a particular case and to ensure consistency across cases dealing with similar misconduct and surrounding circumstances." (Rules Proc. of State Bar, tit. IV, Stds. for Atty. Sanctions for Prof. Misconduct, std. 1.1. All further references to Standards are to this source.) The Standards help fulfill the primary purposes of discipline, which include: protection of the public, the courts and the legal profession; maintenance of the highest professional standards; and preservation of public confidence in the legal profession. (See std. 1.1; In re Morse (1995) 11 Cal.4th 184, 205.)

Although not binding, the Standards are entitled to "great weight" and should be followed "whenever possible" in determining level of discipline. (In re Silvertan (2005) 36 Cal.4th 81, 92, quoting In re Brown (1995) 12 Cal.4th 205, 220 and In re Young (1989) 49 Cal.3d 257, 267, fn. 11.) Adherence to the Standards in the great majority of cases serves the valuable purpose of eliminating disparity and assuring consistency, that is, the imposition of similar attorney discipline for instances of similar attorney misconduct. (In re Naney (1990) 51 Cal.3d 186, 190.) If a recommendation is at the high end or low end of a Standard, an explanation must be given as to how the recommendation was reached. (Std. 1.1.) "Any disciplinary recommendation that deviates from the Standards must include clear reasons for the departure." (Std. 1.1; Blair v. State Bar (1989) 49 Cal.3d 762, 776, fn. 5.)

In determining whether to impose a sanction greater or less than that specified in a given Standard, in addition to the factors set forth in the specific Standard, consideration is to be given to the primary purposes of discipline; the balancing of all aggravating and mitigating circumstances; the type of misconduct at issue; whether the client, public, legal system or profession was harmed; and the member's willingness and ability to conform to ethical responsibilities in the future. (Stds. 1.7(b) and (c).)

In this matter, Respondent admits to committing two acts of professional misconduct. Standard 1.7(a) requires that where a respondent "commits two or more acts of misconduct and the Standards specify different sanctions for each act, the most severe sanction must be imposed."

The most severe sanction applicable to Respondent's misconduct is found in Standard 2.11, which applies to Respondent's violation of Business and Professions Code section 6106. Standard 2.11 provides that the presumed discipline for an act of moral turpitude is disbarment or actual suspension. Standard 2.11 further states, "[t]he degree of sanction depends on the magnitude of misconduct; the extent to which the misconduct harmed or misled the victim, which may include the adjudicator; the impact on the administration of justice, if any; and the extent to which the misconduct related to the member's practice of law."

Here, Respondent made a misrepresentation under penalty of perjury that he completed the required 25 hour MCLE requirement during the compliance period. In fact, Respondent failed to provide any evidence of MCLE hours completed during the compliance period. Misrepresentations are compounded when made in writing under penalty of perjury, which includes an imprimatur of veracity which should place a reasonable person on notice to take care that their statement is accurate, complete and true. (In the Matter of Maloney and Virsik (Review Dept. 2005) 4 Cal. State Bar Ct. Rptr. 774, 786.) Respondent's misconduct was directly related to the practice of law and circumvented the continuing legal education requirements established for the purpose of enhancing attorney competence and protecting the public. Because Respondent's misconduct was serious, relates directly to the practice of law, and undermines public confidence in the profession, it warrants a period of actual suspension.

In determining the appropriate level of discipline, a balancing of factors in aggravation and mitigation are necessary. Prior to the misconduct, Respondent had 10 years of discipline-free practice for which Respondent is entitled to significant mitigation. Respondent also receives mitigation for entering into this pretrial stipulation, in which Respondent has acknowledged his misconduct and saved the State Bar's time and resources. The only aggravating factor is that Respondent committed multiple acts of misconduct. Therefore, Respondent's conduct warrants discipline at the low end of the range of discipline suggested by Standard 2.11, and a one-year stayed suspension and one year of probation with conditions, including 60 days of actual suspension, is appropriate.

Case law also supports this level of discipline. It is important to consider the Review Department decision in In the Matter of Yee (Review Dept. 2014) 5 Cal. State Bar Ct. Rptr. 330. Attorney Yee submitted her MCLE compliance card and affirmed that she had completed the requisite 25 hours during her compliance period. She believed that she had complied because she remembered completing a 25-hour bundle of MCLE courses. However, during a subsequent audit and State Bar investigation, Yee was unable to produce any record of compliance during the compliance period at issue. The Review Department found that "Yee's failure to verify her MCLE compliance before affirming it constitutes gross negligence amounting to moral turpitude for discipline purposes" (Id. at 334.), but declined to find she had misrepresented her MCLE compliance intentionally. The Review Department found strong mitigation in Yee's case. In particular, the Review Department noted Yee's: (1) 10 and one half years of discipline-free practice; (2) her candor and cooperation with the State Bar during the investigation; (3) her good character as evidenced by the testimony of eleven witnesses; (4) her immediate recognition of wrongdoing and creation of a plan to avoid such issues in the future; and, (5) her significant amount of pro bono work and service to the community. (Id. at 335-36.) In Yee, the Review Department imposed discipline consisting of a public reproof.

Using Yee as a guide, Respondent is afforded significant mitigation for his 10 years of practice without a record of discipline. Unlike Yee, Respondent has not provided any additional mitigation in the form of character references, pro bono work, and community service. Nor has Respondent provided any plan to avoid this issue in the future comparable to the remorse/recognition of wrongdoing that Yee exhibited. Further, like Yee, Respondent did not complete any hours during the compliance period; unlike Yee, he did not make up the 25 hours until well after the compliance period and well after the audit. Moreover, Respondent failed to cooperate with the State Bar investigation. Therefore, the application of the Standards and the findings in Yee support an outcome of public discipline greater than that in Yee.

COSTS OF DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS.

Respondent acknowledges that the Office of Chief Trial Counsel has informed Respondent that as of July 14, 2016, the prosecution costs in this matter are $3,669. Respondent further acknowledges that should this stipulation be rejected or should relief from the stipulation be granted, the costs in this matter may increase due to the cost of further proceedings.

EXCLUSION FROM MINIMUM CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION ("MCLE") CREDIT

Respondent may not receive MCLE credit for completion of State Bar Ethics School and/or any other educational course(s) to be ordered as a condition of his suspension. (Rules Proc. of State Bar, rule 3201.)
