- (5) Other Conditions:

8. Respondent took no substantive action on Bradshaw's legal matter after the City of Oakland rejected Bradshaw's claim on May 22, 2013. By failing to take any substantive action on Bradshaw's legal matter after May 22, 2013, respondent constructively terminated his employment for Bradshaw. Respondent did not inform Bradshaw that respondent was withdrawing from employment.

9. On January 6, 2016, the State Bar investigator interviewed the respondent in connection with Bradshaw's complaint to the State Bar. Respondent readily admitted his misconduct to the State Bar investigator.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

10. By failing to file a complaint with PG&E; and by failing to take any substantive action on Bradshaw's case after May 22, 2013, respondent intentionally, recklessly, or repeatedly failed to perform legal services with competence in willful violation of Rules of Professional Conduct, rule 3-110(A).

11. By stating in writing to Bradshaw on August 16, 2013 and again on September 13, 2013, that respondent had filed a claim against PG&E on behalf of Bradshaw, when these statements were false and respondent knew these statements were false, respondent committed acts involving moral turpitude, dishonesty or corruption, in wilful violation of Business and Professions Code, section 6106.

12. By failing to respond promptly to six emails and one in-person request from Bradshaw for the status of his case between December 16, 2013 and March 11, 2015, respondent failed to respond to reasonable status inquires made by respondent's client in a matter in which respondent agreed to provide legal services, in wilful violation of Business and Professions Code, section 6068(m).

13. By failing to take any substantive action on the client's behalf after May 22, 2013, and by thereafter failing to inform Bradshaw that respondent was withdrawing from employment, respondent failed, upon termination of employment, to take reasonable steps to avoid reasonably foreseeable prejudice to respondent's client, in willful violation of Rules of Professional Conduct, rule 3-700(A) (2).

AGGRAVATING CIRCUMSTANCES.

Multiple Acts of Wrongdoing (Std. 1.5(b)): Respondent committed four acts of misconduct, indicating multiple acts of wrongdoing.

Concealment (Std. 1.5(f)): By falsely telling Bradshaw that he had filed a claim with PG&E on August 16, 2013 and again on September 13, 2013, when he had not; and by failing to respond to Bradshaw's reasonable requests for a status update on his matter between December 16, 2013 and March 11, 2015, respondent concealed his misconduct for over eighteen months.

Significant Harm to Client, Public or Administration of Justice (Std. 1.5(j)): Respondent caused significant harm to his client, who was misled for over eighteen months and lost his ability to file a claim.

MITIGATING CIRCUMSTANCES.

Spontaneous Candor and Cooperation (Std. 1.6(e)): Respondent readily admitted to the misconduct to the State Bar on January 6, 2016. (Standard 1.6(e)).

Additional Mitigating Circumstances:

Pre-filing Stipulation: By entering into this stipulation, respondent has acknowledged misconduct and is entitled to mitigation for recognition of wrongdoing and saving the State Bar significant resources and time. (Silva-Vidor v. State Bar (1989) 49 Cal.3d 1071, 1079 [where mitigative credit was given for entering into a stipulation as to facts and culpability]; In the Matter of Spaiith (Review Dept. 1996) 3 Cal. State Bar Ct. Rptr. 511, 521 [where the attorney's stipulation to facts and culpability was held to be a mitigating circumstance].)

Family Problems: Respondent started to have marital problems beginning in or about early 2013, which culminated in a petition for dissolution that was filed on June 26, 2015. Respondent's divorce proceedings are still ongoing. (In the Matter of Kaplan (Review Dept. 1993) 2 Cal. State Bar Ct. Rptr. 509, 519 [limited mitigation for marital difficulties in absence of medical diagnosis].)

AUTHORITIES SUPPORTING DISCIPLINE.

The Standards for Attorney Sanctions for Professional Misconduct “set forth a means for determining the appropriate disciplinary sanction in a particular case and to ensure consistency across cases dealing with similar misconduct and surrounding circumstances.” (Rules Proc. of State Bar, tit. IV, Stds. for Atty. Sanctions for Prof. Misconduct, std. 1.1. All further references to standards are to this source.) The standards help fulfill the primary purposes of discipline, which include: protection of the public, the courts and the legal profession; maintenance of the highest professional standards; and preservation of public confidence in the legal profession. (See std. 1.1; In re Morse (1995) 11 Cal.4th 184, 205.)

Although not binding, the standards are entitled to “great weight” and should be followed “whenever possible” in determining level of discipline. (In re Silvertan (2005) 36 Cal.4th 81, 92, quoting In re Brown (1995) 12 Cal.4th 205, 220 and In re Young (1989) 49 Cal.3d 257, 267, fn. 11.) Adherence to the standards in the great majority of cases serves the valuable purpose of eliminating disparity and assuring consistency, that is, the imposition of similar attorney discipline for instances of similar attorney misconduct. (In re Naney (1990) 51 Cal.3d 186, 190.) If a recommendation is at the high end or low end of a standard, an explanation must be given as to how the recommendation was reached. (Std. 1.1.) “Any disciplinary recommendation that deviates from the Standards must include clear reasons for the departure.” (Std. 1.1; Blair v. State Bar (1989) 49 Cal.3d 762, 776, fn. 5.)

In determining whether to impose a sanction greater or less than that specified in a given standard, in addition to the factors set forth in the specific standard, consideration is to be given to the primary purposes of discipline; the balancing of all aggravating and mitigating circumstances; the type of misconduct at issue; whether the client, public, legal system or profession was harmed; and the member's willingness and ability to conform to ethical responsibilities in the future. (Stds. 1.7(b) and (c).)

In this matter, respondent admits to committing four acts of professional misconduct. Standard 1.7(a) requires that where a respondent “commits two or more acts of misconduct and the Standards specify different sanctions for each act, the most severe sanction must be imposed.”

The most severe sanction applicable to respondent’s misconduct is found in standard 2.11 which applies to respondent’s violation of Business and Professions Code, section 6106. Standard 2.11 provides that disbarment or actual suspension is the presumed sanction for an act of moral turpitude. The degree depends upon the magnitude of the misconduct, the extent to which the misconduct harmed or misled the victim, the impact on the administration of justice and the extent to which the misconduct related to the member’s practice of law. Here, respondent was hired to pursue a personal injury matter. He failed to pursue the claim and falsely told the client he had filed a claim when he had not. Respondent’s misconduct directly related to the member’s practice of law. Respondent’s misconduct is of significant magnitude. In aggravation, respondent committed multiple acts of misconduct; he caused significant harm to the complaining witness who lost his ability to file a timely claim; and he concealed the misconduct from the client for over eighteen months. In mitigation respondent readily admitted to the misconduct to the Bar, entered into a pre-filing stipulation, and was undergoing family problems at the time of the misconduct. On balance the degree of harm to the client, who lost the ability to pursue his claim and was deceived for over eighteen months, indicates that a significant period of discipline is warranted. A one year of suspension, stayed, one year of probation, with ninety days of actual suspension, standard conditions and costs, including MPRE, Ethics School, and California Rule of Court, rule 9.20 is adequate to protect the public and the profession, as well as follows the guideline found in the standards.

COSTS OF DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS.

Respondent acknowledges that the Office of Chief Trial Counsel has informed respondent that as of October 11, 2016, the prosecution costs in this matter are $3,139.00. Respondent further acknowledges that should this stipulation be rejected or should relief from the stipulation be granted, the costs in this matter may increase due to the cost of further proceedings.

EXCLUSION FROM MINIMUM CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION (“MCLE”) CREDIT

Respondent may not receive MCLE credit for completion of State Bar Ethics School, and/or any other educational course(s) to be ordered as a condition of reproof or suspension]. (Rules Proc. of State Bar, rule 3201.)
