F. Other Conditions Negotiated by the Parties:

Respondent recognizes that a repeat conviction for DUI suggests an alcohol and/or drug problem that needs to be addressed before it affects respondent's legal practice. Respondent agrees to take the steps necessary to control the use of alcohol and/or drugs such that it will not affect respondent's law practice in the future. Respondent's agreement to participate in an abstinence-based self-help group (as defined herein), as a condition of discipline, is part of respondent's efforts to address such concerns.

As a condition of reprobation, and during the period of reprobation, respondent must attend a minimum of two (2) meetings per month of any abstinence-based self-help group of respondent's choosing, including without limitation Alcoholics Anonymous, Narcotics Anonymous, LifeRing, S.M.A.R.T., S.O.S., etc. Other self-help maintenance programs are acceptable if they include a subculture to support recovery, including abstinence-based group meetings. (See O'Conner v. Calif. (C.D. Calif. 1994) 855 F. Supp. 303 [no First Amendment violation where probationer given a choice between AA and a secular program.]) Respondent is encouraged, but not required, to obtain a sponsor during the term of participation in these meetings.

The program called "Moderation Management" is not acceptable because it is not abstinence-based and allows the participant to continue consuming alcohol.

Respondent must contact the Office of Probation and obtain written approval for the program respondent has selected prior to attending the first self-help group meeting. If respondent wants to change groups, respondent must first obtain the Office of Probation's written approval prior to attending a meeting with the new self-help group.

Respondent must provide to the Office of Probation satisfactory proof of attendance of the meetings set forth herein with each Quarterly Report submitted to the Office of Probation. Respondent may not sign as the verifier of his or her own attendance.

Respondent is encouraged, but is not required, to participate in the Lawyers' Assistance Program, to abstain from alcohol and illegal drugs, and to undergo random urinalysis testing to complement abstinence.

5. On March 9, 2017, the Review Department of the State Bar Court issued an order referring the matter to the Hearing Department for a hearing and decision recommending the discipline to be imposed in the event that the Hearing Department finds that the facts and circumstances surrounding the offense(s) for which respondent was convicted involved moral turpitude or other misconduct warranting discipline.

FACTS:

6. On October 21, 2016, Bakersfield Code Enforcement Officer Harvick found respondent at the wheel of his vehicle in the middle of the roadway and called for police assistance. The vehicle was running and in "drive" while respondent's foot applied the brake.

7. At approximately 2:57 PM, Bakersfield Police Department Officer Kameron Bailey was dispatched to the scene. When Officer Bailey arrived at approximately 3:00 PM, he knocked on the car window multiple times to get respondent's attention, but respondent did not awaken. Bakersfield Fire Department arrived to place blocks to the front of the vehicle to prevent the vehicle from moving. Bakersfield Fire Department then gained access to the vehicle to place it in "park." Officer Bailey shouted to respondent and shook him, but respondent still did not awaken.

8. Officer Bailey then rubbed respondent's sternum for approximately ten seconds before respondent opened his eyes. Once awake, respondent displayed signs of intoxication including red watery eyes, thick slurred speech, and an odor of alcohol emitting from his breath and person.

9. Officer Bailey performed a records check and discovered respondent was on DUI probation until March 4, 2017, from his prior DUI conviction on March 5, 2014 (Kern County case no. BM830000A). Respondent's prior DUI offense occurred on October 3, 2013.

10. Respondent indicated to Officer Bailey that he was aware of his prior DUI probation. When Officer Bailey asked respondent if he had been drinking, respondent admitted to having approximately three to four vodka cranberry alcoholic beverages. Respondent agreed to participate in field sobriety tests.

11. Officer Bailey administered the Horizontal Gaze Nystagmus Test and the Walk and Turn Test. Respondent displayed signs of intoxication during both tests. Officer Bailey also administered the Preliminary Alcohol Screening ("PAS") Test, which indicated respondent had .29% blood alcohol concentration.

12. Due to respondent's falling asleep at the wheel of his car, the amount of effort it took to wake him, respondent displaying signs of intoxication, his statements regarding consuming alcohol, his field sobriety tests results, and his PAS test results, Officer Bailey determined respondent was too intoxicated to operate a vehicle and arrested him for DUI.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

13. The facts and circumstances surrounding the above-described violation(s) did not involve moral turpitude but did involve other misconduct warranting discipline.

ADDITIONAL FACTS RE MITIGATING CIRCUMSTANCES.

No Prior Discipline: Respondent was admitted to practice in California on December 3, 1981. Respondent practiced law in California since 1981 without any record of misconduct. Respondent is entitled to significant mitigation credit for his 34 years of practice without discipline prior to the misconduct. (Hawes v. State Bar (1990) 51 Cal.3d 587, 596 [over ten years of discipline-free practice entitled to significant weight in mitigation].)

Pretrial Stipulation: By entering into this stipulation, respondent has acknowledged misconduct and is entitled to mitigation for recognition of wrongdoing and saving the State Bar significant resources and time. (Silva-Vidor v. State Bar (1989) 49 Cal.3d 1071, 1079 [where mitigative credit was given for entering into a stipulation as to facts and culpability]; In the Matter of Spaith (Review Dept. 1996) 3 Cal. State Bar Ct. Rptr. 511, 521 [where the attorney's stipulation to facts and culpability was held to be a mitigating circumstance].)

AUTHORITIES SUPPORTING DISCIPLINE.

The Standards for Attorney Sanctions for Professional Misconduct “set forth a means for determining the appropriate disciplinary sanction in a particular case and to ensure consistency across cases dealing with similar misconduct and surrounding circumstances.” (Rules Proc. of State Bar, tit. IV, Stds. for Atty. Sanctions for Prof. Misconduct, std. 1.1. All further references to standards are to this source.) The standards help fulfill the primary purposes of discipline, which include: protection of the public, the courts and the legal profession; maintenance of the highest professional standards; and preservation of public confidence in the legal profession. (See std. 1.1; In re Morse (1995) 11 Cal.4th 184, 205.)

Although not binding, the standards are entitled to “great weight” and should be followed “whenever possible” in determining level of discipline. (In re Silvertan (2005) 36 Cal.4th 81, 92, quoting In re Brown (1995) 12 Cal.4th 205, 220 and In re Young (1989) 49 Cal.3d 257, 267, fn. 11.) Adherence to the standards in the great majority of cases serves the valuable purpose of eliminating disparity and assuring consistency, that is, the imposition of similar attorney discipline for instances of similar attorney misconduct. (In re Naney (1990) 51 Cal.3d 186, 190.) If a recommendation is at the high end or low end of a standard, an explanation must be given as to how the recommendation was reached. (Std. 1.1.) “Any disciplinary recommendation that deviates from the Standards must include clear reasons for the departure.” (Std. 1.1; Blair v. State Bar (1989) 49 Cal.3d 762, 776, fn. 5.)

In determining whether to impose a sanction greater or less than that specified in a given standard, in addition to the factors set forth in the specific standard, consideration is to be given to the primary purposes of discipline; the balancing of all aggravating and mitigating circumstances; the type of misconduct at issue; whether the client, public, legal system or profession was harmed; and the member’s willingness and ability to conform to ethical responsibilities in the future. (Stds. 1.7(b) and (c).)

Standard 2.16 provides that “suspension or reproof is the presumed sanction for final conviction of a misdemeanor not involving moral turpitude but involving other misconduct warranting discipline.” In the present matter, the facts and circumstances surrounding respondent’s conviction do not involve moral turpitude, but do involve other conduct warranting discipline. (In re Kelley (1990) 52 Cal.3d 487, 497 [A second and subsequent conviction for driving under the influence did not involve moral turpitude, but constituted other misconduct warranting discipline].)

In the present matter, respondent was convicted of driving under the influence, and his DUI offense occurred while he was on probation for a prior DUI. There are no circumstances in aggravation. In mitigation, respondent has no prior record of discipline with over 34 years of practice, which is entitled to significant weight. Respondent is also entitled to mitigation for acknowledging his misconduct and entering into a pretrial stipulation, thereby obviating the need for trial and saving State Bar time and resources. Considering the nature of the misconduct and the mitigation, a public reproof is appropriate to protect the public, the courts, and the legal profession, maintain the highest professional standards, and preserve public confidence in the legal profession.

This level of discipline is also consistent with case law. In In re Kelley, an attorney was convicted twice of driving under the influence within a 31-month period. (Id. at 499.) On her first arrest, the attorney had driven her car into an embankment and was arrested at the scene. While on probation, she was stopped by a police officer while driving home and eventually arrested after failing a field sobriety test. The Court found that the attorney's conduct did not involve moral turpitude, but rather constituted other misconduct warranting disciplinary action. Noting there had been no specific harm caused to the public or the courts, as well as the attorney's significant mitigating evidence, the Court ordered the attorney publicly reproofed and directed her to participate in the State Bar's program on alcohol abuse.

In light of the foregoing, a level of discipline consisting of a public reproof with substance abuse conditions will best serve the goals of protection of the public, the courts, and the legal profession.

COSTS OF DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS.

Respondent acknowledges that the Office of Chief Trial Counsel has informed respondent that as of April 24, 2017, the discipline costs in this matter are $2,629. Respondent further acknowledges that should this stipulation be rejected or should relief from the stipulation be granted, the costs in this matter may increase due to the cost of further proceedings.

EXCLUSION FROM MINIMUM CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION ("MCLE") CREDIT

Respondent may not receive MCLE credit for completion of State Bar Ethics School and/or any other educational course(s) to be ordered as a condition of reproof. (Rules Proc. of State Bar, rule 3201.)
