A Member of the State Bar, No. 251062.	)	DATE OF TERMS OF STIPULATION
_____	)

On December 7, 2018, this court approved Respondent's Stipulation Re Facts, Conclusions of Law and Disposition in the above-entitled matter wherein Respondent stipulated to a public reproof with various conditions. The court ordered Respondent publically reproved with conditions and also ordered that the stipulation become effective 15 days after service of the court's order.

On December 10, 2018, Respondent filed a request to delay the effective date of the terms of the stipulation due to a serious medical condition. Respondent also requested that she be permitted to file any medical records under seal. On December 12, 2018, the Office of Chief Trial Counsel (OCTC) filed a response stating its non-opposition to a 30-day delay of the effective date of the stipulation. On December 19, 2018, Respondent filed an addendum to her December 10, 2018 delay request wherein Respondent asked the court to delay the effective date of the stipulation until March 1, 2019, due to her medical condition prognosis and treatment.

After careful review of the pleadings, the court issues the following orders:

1. The effective date of the stipulation that the court approved on December 7, 2018, is hereby vacated.

2. Good cause having been shown, Respondent's request to delay the effective date of the stipulation that the court previously approved on December 7, 2018, is GRANTED. The effective date of the December 7, 2018 stipulation is delayed until March 1, 2019.
3. Good cause having been shown, Respondent's request to file her medical records under seal is GRANTED. The December 18, 2018 physician's letter filed with Respondent's December 19, 2018 addendum and any other medical records that Respondent may file are ordered sealed.

A telephonic status conference will be held in this matter on February 1, 2019, at 10:00 a.m.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
