TO ALL PARTIES AND COUNSEL IN THE ABOVE ENTITLED MATTER:

On December 17, 2010, petitioner Robert Dominic Mannix asked the court to temporarily reduce his $200 monthly payment for disciplinary costs based on financial hardship. Petitioner proposes a monthly installment payment of $25 until he regains full-time employment or until the costs are paid in full, whichever occurs first.

On January 5, 2011, Deputy Trial Counsel Mark Hartman of the Office of the Chief Trial Counsel of the State Bar of California (State Bar) filed a response and does not oppose the payment plan suggested by petitioner.

In view of petitioner's financial hardship and good cause appearing, petitioner's request for a temporary modification of the payment plan for disciplinary costs is GRANTED.

The court hereby ORDERS the following:

1. Petitioner must pay $25, due on the 1st of each month, beginning on February 1, 2011 (retroactively), and continuing until petitioner regains full-time employment or until the disciplinary costs are paid in full, whichever occurs first.
2. Within 45 days of full-time employment, petitioner must notify the State Bar.
3. After 45 days of full-time employment, this temporary order will be vacated, the original Order re Disciplinary Costs filed June 10, 2010, will be in effect again and petitioner will resume his $200 monthly installment payments of disciplinary costs.
4. If petitioner fails to pay any installment within the time provided herein or as may be modified by the State Bar Court pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 6086.10, subdivision (c), the remaining balance of the costs is due and enforceable both as provided in Business and Professions Code section 6140.7 and as a money judgment. (Rules Proc. of State Bar, new rule 5.134, effective January 1, 2011.)

IT IS SO ORDERED.
