Member No. 70638,)	DEFAULT AND ORDER OF
A Member of the State Bar.)	INVOLUNTARY INACTIVE
)	ENROLLMENT; FURTHER ORDERS

On February 28, 2013, the Office of the Chief Trial Counsel of the State Bar of California (State Bar) filed a request with the court seeking an order setting aside respondent Jeffrey Alan Dickstein's default to allow "the State Bar to 'recite the facts and circumstances surrounding the conviction that [it] contends it has clear and convincing evidence to prove,' pursuant to Rule 5.345(C)(2) [of the Rules of Procedure of the State Bar]."¹ In the alternative, the State Bar requested a status conference in this matter to receive guidance from the court.

After reviewing and considering this matter, in light of the fact that respondent has not been put on notice of the facts and circumstances surrounding his conviction which the court will consider in making its finding as to whether respondent's misconduct involved moral turpitude or other misconduct warranting discipline, the court makes the following orders:

¹ State Bar's Request for Court Order (or in the Alternative a Status Hearing) Regarding Entry of Respondent's Default filed February 28, 2013.

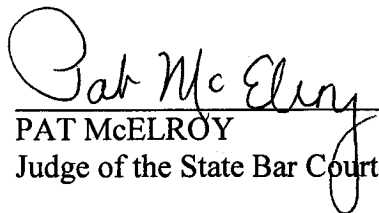

The court's October 31, 2012 order entering respondent's default for his failure to appear at trial and enrolling him inactive under Business and Professions Code section 6007, subdivision (e), is hereby vacated, nunc pro tunc, to October 31, 2012.

Within five days after service of this order, the State Bar is ordered to file and serve upon respondent a statement of the facts and circumstances surrounding respondent's conviction that the State Bar contends it has clear and convincing evidence to prove. (Cf. Rules Proc. of State Bar, rule 5.345(C)(2).) Service of the statement must be made on respondent under rule 5.25 of the Rules of Procedure of the State Bar.

Respondent will have 10 days after service of the statement of the facts and circumstances surrounding his conviction to file and serve a notice of his intent to appear at trial. If respondent timely files a notice of his intent to appear at trial, the court will schedule a status conference to set trial dates in this matter. If respondent does not timely file a notice of his intent to appear at trial, the court will enter respondent's default and will order respondent's involuntary inactive enrollment under section 6007, subdivision (e) of the Business and Professions Code.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
