STIPULATION RE FACTS, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW AND DISPOSITION

IN THE MATTER OF:                   JOSE CASTILLO ESCANO

CASE NUMBER:                       14-O-01548

FACTS AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW.

Respondent admits that the following facts are true and that he is culpable of the violation of the specified statute.

Case No. 14-O-01548 (State Bar Investigation)

FACTS:

1. As a member of the State Bar of California, Respondent was required to complete 25 hours of minimum continuing legal education ("MCLE") during the period commencing on February 1, 2010 and ending on January 31, 2013 ("compliance period").

2. On July 1, 2013, Respondent reported to the State Bar under penalty of perjury that he had completed all 25 required hours of MCLE during the compliance period.

3. In fact, Respondent had not completed any hours of MCLE within the compliance period.

4. When Respondent reported to the State Bar under penalty of perjury that he was in compliance with the MCLE requirement, Respondent knew that he had not completed the necessary MCLE hours during the compliance period, as required.

5. Subsequently, in November 2013, Respondent completed the MCLE hours necessary to come into compliance after being contacted by the State Bar's Office of Member Records and Compliance regarding an audit of his MCLE compliance.

6. On April 8, 2014, May 5, 2014, June 4, 2014, July 10, 2014, and July 18, 2014, the State Bar sent an investigation letter to Respondent requesting a written response to the allegation that he misrepresented his compliance with his MCLE hours during the reporting period, and requesting proof of completion.

7. To date, Respondent has failed to provide a response to the allegations as set forth in the State Bar's investigative letters.

CONCLUSION OF LAW:

8. By reporting under the penalty of perjury to the State Bar that he had fully complied with the MCLE requirements for the compliance period, when Respondent knew that he had failed to complete the MCLE requirement for the compliance period, Respondent committed an act involving dishonesty in willful violation of Business and Professions Code section 6106.

9. By failing to respond to the investigator's letters, Respondent failed to cooperate and participate in a disciplinary investigation pending against him in willful violation of Business and Professions Code section 6068(i).

AGGRAVATING CIRCUMSTANCES.

None.

MITIGATING CIRCUMSTANCES.

No Prior Record of Discipline: Respondent has been a member of the State Bar since December 7, 1999. Respondent had practiced law for over 13 years without a prior record of discipline when the misconduct herein occurred. (Hawes v. State Bar (1990) 51 Cal.3d 587, 596 [more than ten years of discipline-free practice entitled to significant mitigation].)

Pretrial Stipulation: Respondent is entitled to mitigating credit for entering into this stipulation as to facts and conclusions of law, thereby obviating the need for trial and saving State Bar resources. (Silva-Vidor v. State Bar (1989) 49 Cal.3d 1071, 1079 [where mitigating credit was given for entering into a stipulation as to facts and culpability].)

AUTHORITIES SUPPORTING DISCIPLINE.

The Standards for Attorney Sanctions for Professional Misconduct "set forth a means for determining the appropriate disciplinary sanction in a particular case and to ensure consistency across cases dealing with similar misconduct and surrounding circumstances." (Rules Proc. of State Bar, tit. IV, Stds. for Atty. Sanctions for Prof. Misconduct, std. 1.1. All further references to Standards are to this source.) The Standards help fulfill the primary purposes of discipline, which include: protection of the public, the courts and the legal profession; maintenance of the highest professional standards; and preservation of public confidence in the legal profession. (See std. 1.1; In re Morse (1995) 11 Cal.4th 184, 205.)

Although not binding, the Standards are entitled to "great weight" and should be followed "whenever possible" in determining level of discipline. (In re Silverton (2005) 36 Cal.4th 81, 92, quoting In re Brown (1995) 12 Cal.4th 205, 220 and In re Young (1989) 49 Cal.3d 257, 267, fn. 11.) Adherence to the Standards in the great majority of cases serves the valuable purpose of eliminating disparity and assuring consistency, that is, the imposition of similar attorney discipline for instances of similar attorney misconduct. (In re Naney (1990) 51 Cal.3d 186, 190.) If a recommendation is at the high end or low end of a Standard, an explanation must be given as to how the recommendation was reached. (Std. 1.1.) "Any disciplinary recommendation that deviates from the Standards must include clear reasons for the departure." (Std. 1.1; Blair v. State Bar (1989) 49 Cal.3d 762, 776, fn. 5.)

In determining whether to impose a sanction greater or less than that specified in a given Standard, in addition to the factors set forth in the specific Standard, consideration is to be given to the primary purposes of discipline; the balancing of all aggravating and mitigating circumstances; the type of misconduct at issue; whether the client, public, legal system or profession was harmed; and the member's willingness and ability to conform to ethical responsibilities in the future. (Stds. 1.7(b) and (c).)

Standard 1.7(a) further provides that, "If a member commits two or more acts of misconduct and the Standards specify different sanctions for each act, the most severe sanction must be imposed." Here,

Respondent has committed two separate acts of misconduct. The most severe sanction applicable is Standard 2.11, which provides:

Disbarment or actual suspension is the presumed sanction for an act of moral turpitude, dishonesty, fraud, corruption, intentional or grossly negligent misrepresentation, or concealment of material fact. The degree of sanction depends on the magnitude of the misconduct; the extent to which the misconduct harmed or misled the victim, which may include the adjudicator; the impact on the administration of justice, if any; and the extent to which the misconduct related to the member's practice of law.

Here, Respondent's misrepresentation, made under penalty of perjury, was an intentional act of dishonesty. Misrepresentations are compounded when made in writing under penalty of perjury, which includes an imprimatur of veracity which should place a reasonable person on notice to take care that their statement is accurate, complete, and true. (In the Matter of Maloney and Virsik (Review Dept. 2005) 4 Cal. State Bar Ct. Rptr. 774, 786.) When respondent stated under penalty of perjury on July 1, 2013 that he complied with his MCLE requirements of completing 25 hours of MCLE courses during the compliance period, Respondent knew he was not in compliance. Moreover, Respondent's misconduct pertaining to the MCLE requirements circumvented the continuing legal educational requirements established for the purpose of enhancing attorney competence and protecting the public. For these reasons, Respondent's misconduct is serious, relates directly to the practice of law, and undermines public confidence in the profession. In addition, Respondent failed to cooperate with the State Bar investigation by failing to provide written responses to the allegations.

Although related to the practice of law, Respondent's failure to accurately report his MCLE compliance was a one-time error that is mitigated by over 13 years of legal practice without prior discipline. Respondent's misconduct caused no harm to his clients or the public. Furthermore, Respondent completed 25 MCLE credit hours in November 2013, albeit outside the reporting period. Additionally, with this stipulation, Respondent is acknowledging the wrongfulness of the misconduct.

Nevertheless, Respondent's conduct in certifying his MCLE hours was an act of moral turpitude and he should therefore receive a period of actual suspension from the practice of law. In addition, Respondent has failed to cooperate in the State Bar's investigation into his alleged misconduct in this matter, despite being given numerous opportunities to do so. Due to the mitigating circumstances present and the lack of aggravating circumstances, a discipline at the lower end of the range suggested by Standard 2.11 is appropriate. Thus, a one (1) year stayed suspension and one (1) year probation with conditions including a sixty (60) day actual suspension will serve to protect the public, the courts and the legal profession; maintain the highest professional standards; and preserve public confidence in the legal profession.

Case law also supports this result. In In the Matter of Yee (Review Dept. 2014) 5 Cal. State Bar Ct. Rptr. 330, the attorney was found culpable of moral turpitude based on gross negligence in violation of Business and Professions Code section 6106 when she affirmed that she had completed the required 25 hours of MCLE when, in fact, she had not taken any MCLE courses during the relevant reporting period. The attorney mistakenly recalled that she had completed the courses, and did not check or maintain any records to confirm if her recollection was accurate. When she was randomly audited by the State Bar, she corrected her error and submitted proper proof of compliance. The circumstances in Yee were less serious than those present here.

Like the attorney in Yee, Respondent completed the required MCLE hours after the audit. However, unlike the attorney in Yee, Respondent engaged in additional misconduct by failing to cooperate with the State Bar investigation. Respondent also has much less mitigation than that in Yee. Accordingly, a greater level of discipline than the public reproof that was imposed in Yee is appropriate in the present matter.

COSTS OF DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS.

Respondent acknowledges that the Office of the Chief Trial Counsel has informed Respondent that as of December 1, 2015, the prosecution costs in this matter are approximately $3,066. Respondent further acknowledges that should this stipulation be rejected or should relief from the stipulation be granted, the costs in this matter may increase due to the cost of further proceedings.

EXCLUSION FROM MCLE CREDIT

Pursuant to rule 3201, Respondent may not receive MCLE credit for completion of Ethics School ordered as a condition of discipline. (Rules Proc. of State Bar, rule 3201.)
