A Member of the State Bar, No. 174680.	)

On January 9, 2013, respondent filed a request to immediately vacate this court's November 26, 2012 suspension order issued as a result of respondent's failure to timely pass the Multistate Professional Responsibility Examination (MPRE). On January 14, 2013, the State Bar filed its response to the motion.

Finding no good cause, respondent's request is denied. Respondent failed to provide sufficient evidence that her previous passage of the MPRE in 2009 was intended to satisfy the subsequent requirement set forth in the Supreme Court's August 31, 2011 discipline order. Further, to the extent she was to receive credit, respondent should have timely moved to modify the hearing department's decision to correct the recommendation. Accordingly, we decline to consider the 2009 examination as satisfaction of the 2011 order. Nevertheless, we will provide respondent additional time to comply. Thus, the previously ordered suspension is vacated and respondent has until May 21, 2013 to provide satisfactory proof of passage of the April 2013 examination.
